BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
DATE: 05/15/91

~~His wife Catherine may have been a convert to the Catholic Church (?)~~ They met at a church service held at the Crider farm by a Father Julian from Belle, Missouri.

The evening that Joseph was born, his mother Agnes Kuhlman cooked dinner for over thirty railroad workers that were putting the railroad thru Nodaway county. Joseph always wanted to be a railroad engineer but his mother was against it because she felt that it was too dangerous.

After his marriage to Catherine, the farm in Gasconade county came into dispute as a result of a disputed will that included the ground that made up the farm. Joseph put all of his savings into the court fight that ensued. Eventually, however he lost the farm as a result of the court settlement.

At about this time Joseph contracted Typhoid fever and almost died.

After his eventually recovery, he attended telegraph school in Topeka, Kansas with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe.

1911 - Upon graduation in just under six weeks he took a job with the Great Western railroad near Clyde, Missouri. At this time his daughter Josephine was born in Clyde. A friend of his convinced Joseph to join the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe.

1914 - He was transferred to Wagon Mound, New Mexico where his son Fred was born. At this time he joined a union and the Santa Fe threatened to fire him if he didn't quit the union. He stood his ground and stayed with the union, but left the Santa Fe. He resigned from the Santa Fe and took a position with the Rock Island railroad.

1917 - Joseph was working in Chesterfield, Missouri when his son Francis was born. They lived in a small white clapboard house, but they rented the home from a bank and the bank eventually sold the house. They then moved to a renovated box car near the station where Joseph worked. During this period, his daughter Josephine remembers a terrific train collision where two locomotives ran into each other head on near the box car where they lived.

At about this time, Joseph's mother was dying from a prolonged illness and he went back to Nodaway county to see her. Upon entering the room he started speaking in German. His mother responded "Ach, Joseph we are Americans now - speak the English". From that time on Joseph wouldn't let any German be spoken in his home nor allow any of his children to even take German in school. Catherine got in touch with him and asked him to return home as he was needed there more than in Clyde. He returned to Chesterfield and his mother died soon after he left.

Joseph took a job with the Rock Island in Argyle, Missouri soon after the death of his mother. The family moved there and he became station agent. He made quite a bit of money for the time - more than $5 per week. His son Fred remarked that Joseph was a very smart man - but just couldn't seem to manage his money wisely. He would never let his boys go to the pool hall but he himself was quite an accomplished pool player.

He purchased a farm east of Piqua, Kansas based on dreams of becoming a "gentleman farmer" and from having read various agricultural magazines that always came to their home. He took his son Fred to Wisconsin with him to look cattle at about this time. He eventually purchased some very expensive Guernsey cattle (one of them was a bull named "Happy" that won several championships) and had them shipped to the farm in Kansas to which the family soon moved. Upon arrival there was a large snow storm and Joseph tried to help the local farmers shovel their way out to the main road. After hours of work to which he was unaccustomed - he developed a hernia that put him in bed for at least several weeks. Upon recovery he went back to Argyle and never returned to the farm leaving his family there to take care of the place that eventually burned due to lighting in 1928.

Abbot Coppersmith attended funeral of Joseph @ Resurection Cemet St. Louis. A train (Frisco R.R.) came by on tracks near cemetery as funeral took place. Years later. Abbot Coppersmith (Anselm) remarked to FJL what a nice tribute that had been for Joseph.

> Joseph's birth is believed to have occurred at his parent's farm, located just to the west of Conception Jct., Nodaway, Missouri. The day Joseph was born, it is told that his mother Agnes later got up from her bed and fixed a dinner for thirty local railroad workers that were at the time putting the railroad through Nodaway County. The home where he was born no longer exists and was the first home that his parents owned in Nodaway County. It was located on the Platt River plain about 1 mile northwest of Conception Junction, Nodaway, Missouri. In 1994, Joseph's grandson Fred and great granddaughter Sara Lager were able to visit the site of the home with Mercedes T. Lager and were able to retrieve a railroad sign that marked the area by railroad marker 1019. As a child, Joseph expressed the desire to become a railroad engineer, but his mother was against it as she felt it was too dangerous.

In Loving Memory of
Josephine C. Hargus

July 23, 1911
June 4, 2003

One night a man dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD.
As scenes of his life flashed before him, he noticed that there were two sets of footprints in the sand. He also noticed at his saddest, lowest times there were but one set of footprints. This bothered the man. He asked the Lord, "Did you not promise that if I gave my heart to you that you'd be with me all the way? Then why is there but one set of footprints during my most troublesome times?"
The Lord replied, "My precious child, I love you and would never forsake you. During those times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then I carried you."

COMMENT:

Harold's son Michael had a son Justin. The 4 April 2003 St. Louis Post Dispatch reported that Afton High School infielder Justin Cosma was another senior starter on the schools baseball team.

Dogtown memories of Bill Vorbeck in email of Fri, 1 Dec 2000 "I would like to say a word about the "Would have been City Champion" St. James Girls Basketball Team, of 1948/49. … I recall one day when the boys didn't want to give up the basketball court or ball when it was the girls' turn. The boys, in a playful mode, began to play keep away with the basketball. All went well until Nina Kassing apparently fed up slapped Gene Cosma in the face and a fight started between her and Gene. Well, that stopped everything. The boys broke up the fight and handed over the ball. I reminded them of the promises I made on their behalf to gain access to the court and we never had any problems after that over practice times".

APRIL 2, 1947 Washington, April 2 (AP)- Members of the Missouri Championship Amvets basketball team had lunch in the speakers' dining room yesterday, then saw the nations Capitol. Representative Karst (Dem.) Missouri, was host at the luncheon for the youths from St. Louis County. Then he personally took the team on a tour of the Capitol.

The team came here to play in the national teen-age Amvets Basketball tournament.

The group included Forrest Messel: Coach; Jerry McVey, Jerry Hoffman, George Shaffrey, Bill Vorbeck, Joseph Boman, Joseph Haragan, Gene Cosma, Ted Mueller, Jerry Fleming, Dick Hirsch, Less Hohl Jr., Jack Riordon, Tim Fleming and Leo Fleming.

Subject: Re: LOUIS COSMA

Hello again. I found your original letter on (Ancestry.com, I think, I have looked at so many different sites). I don't know all that much more for sure, because Louis and my grandmother were divorced after just a few years of marriage, and I seldom saw him. All I really remember of him was one time he visited us and gave my brother and me each a dollar and a Hershey bar. I must have been no more than 6 or 7. Here is our branch of the family info:

Grandma was born in St. Louis on August 23, 1890. Her name was (Mary) Elizabeth Claire Daubaignan.(usually called Bess). Her mother's family name was Axtell, and we traced her family back to 1400's England. (www.Axtellfamily.org.) She married Louis in early 1920s. My dad, Tom Cosma was born October 8, 1924 in St. Louis. He now lives at 45 Tobago Lane in Moscow Mills, Mo. with his third wife, Ada. (Tlcapcada@aol.com) He married my mother, Martha Cora Ernest from Virginia October 22, 1948. She came to St. Louis to visit her brother who was married to Daddy's cousin. (his mother's side.)Mom died November 6,1996. I, Connie, was born October 10, 1050 (October was a busy month) I was married to Huby Simpson on May 23, 1970 and divorced in mid 1983. I live at 1010 Pershing, Ballwin, Mo. 63021 (simpsonc@netzero.net) I have one son, Travis Jay, born January 22, 1976. He was just married August 18,2001 to Adria Nieland of Cape Girardeau Mo. They live in Affton.(simpsont@nothnbut.net. My brother Mark Russell was born November 15, 1954. He was married May 21, 1977 to Linda Stevenson and was divorced in 1997. They have a son, Scott Russell born in March, 1980 and a daughter Karen Sue born in February 1983. Mark just remarried to Beth Tierney and they live in St. Peters, Mo.

As for Louis' background, all I know is that Daddy says he was Romanian. He had a passel of brothers, and originally came here on his own visa, but was called home to take care of his mother, Anastasia Onjue. Later he returned to the US on his brother's visa because he couldn't get another in his name. He came over with at least one brother, Nick. They both were chef's, and we believe that Nick moved to Chicago. I found an entry for a Nickolai Cosma on the Ellis Island website in 1913. That should be close to the right time. Hope this helps, I would like to learn more, but just keep hitting dead ends!

Connie

I knew that my aunt Bess who married Francis Lager was also his daughter. I am often in touch with Louis and Josephine sons Gene and Harold. Where did you find my email address ? Just woundering. I have included a word of the descendants of Louis. If you can add to this I would greatly appreciate. Just simply open it, edit it (Maybe change your color to red). If there is anything you can add about Louis and or his parents etc. feel free. Josephine, Francis and my father Frederick were siblings. My father prior to his death in 1998 often spoke of how great Louis was. Hope to hear from you soon.

COMMENT:

Ballwin, Mo.
27 December 1970

Dear Folks,

What a pleasant surprise to hear your voices Christmas day. We sure wasn't expecting that call. We were glad to hear that all you folks were well and happy. The next best thing that could have happened was to have you here Christmas. It was such pretty weather. It was clear when we went to bed Christmas eve and when we got up Christmas morning but some time in between it snowed just enough to say we had snow for Christmas. Not a white Christmas, wasn't that much snow. Louis, Bess' Dad spent this week end with us. He sure likes it out here. Of course he gets special services which he don't get at home, and he likes that. Just like the Dr. told Bess "Your Father is a smart fellow."

We went to Beverly's house Christmas eve, had dinner and gave out presents. I have never seen so many presents in my life. Of course them with their two, and his brother and sister with their 8 or 9 and his parents, it makes a lot of presents.

Guess Aunt Doris is over at Elenores' in Illinois. Got a card from Aunt Ida and Eleanor. Aunt Ida said Aunt Doris got to Belle some how and was at Elvas' Jo & Charlie picked her up and took her to Eleanors'. Aunt Ida has sold her house and she lives at Eleanors, so guess the whole gang is there or was there Christmas. Eleanor wrote a card to us and told us she and Dwight had came to St Louis for a

V.F.W. dance & party not long ago but she can never find time to come a few miles further to see me. I have ask her many, many, times to bring Aunt Ida out to see us but it is more important to go to the V.F.W. party I suppose. It still hurts to know your own come so close to you and cant take a minute to see if you are alive. I am going to do them just like they do me.

I am getting so lazy and fat. We were off four days Thanksgiving, now four more days and four more days New Years. Oh but after that no time off for months. I wouldn't mind the days off if we could get out and work in the yard. We are going to do some work in the house after New Years Bess says she is putting both of us on a diet after the holidays. While I am working I dont mind, I can keep my mind off eating.

Guess I had better sign off for this time by Wishing all of you a Very ~~Happy~~ New Year. (I almost worote a Merry New Year, no brains) Write to Us

We send Our Love & Best Wishes

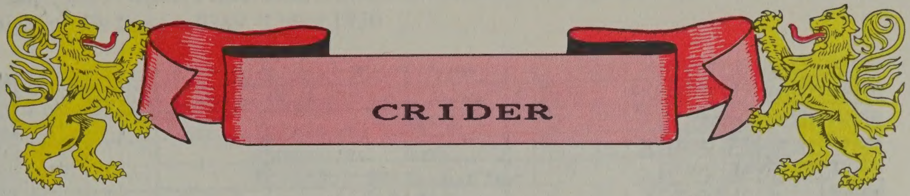
The Story of Our Name



CRIDER

The surname CRIDER, like many other family names, originated in medieval times in Germany as a simple description of an individual as a means of better identification. Prior to that time, a person was known only by the single name which was given him at birth. However, as the population of the towns and villages of Germany increased, it became necessary to distinguish one man named Hans (or Wilhelm or Karl) from others with the same name, and so, a descriptive word or phrase would be given to each.

There were four major sources from which these additional names arose: the names of Places, the person's Occupation, a descriptive Nickname, and Baptismal, that is, from the name of the father. Of these, the name CRIDER began as a Place Name and was used to further identify one who lived on recently cleared land, or who was argumentative.

CLASSIFICATION OF ORIGIN Place Name	COUNTRY OF ORIGIN Germany
MEANING OF NAME One who lived on recently cleared land, or who was argumentative
VARIANT SPELLINGS KREITER AND KRIETER	APPROXIMATE U.S. POPULATION less than 5000
FOREIGN EQUIVALENTS Terranova (Italian) and Rhodes (English)	RANK IN SIZE (U.S.A.) (SMITH = #1) 8415th or less

In the beginning, the name CRIDER belonged only to the person it described. Generations later however, it became hereditary and was passed down from a father to his children to become their family name.

Variants are names with the same meaning, but spelled differently. Like most names, CRIDER has undergone some change since it originated and has also been spelled KREITER AND KRIETER.

Names often have equivalents in the languages of other nations. If born in another country, instead of CRIDER, the family name would have been spelled Terranova (Italian) and Rhodes (English).

The most recent official records released by the Government show that today there are less than 5000 people named CRIDER in the nation, and it's the 8415th or less most populous name.

LOWER LEFT - St. Columba's Church in Conception, Missouri as it was in 1875. When the community outgrew the Colony House, a church was built in 1867 under the direction of Fr. Power. The rear portion of the church in this picture was that original church and was probably where John & Henrietta were married on 25 Jan. 1870.

The front portion of the church in this picture, which included the new church, its tower and the monastery, were added by Fr. Frowin Conrad O.S.B. and dedicated on 8 Sept. 1874. This church faced north and stood where the small chapel in St. Columba Cemetery stands today.

LOWER RIGHT - This is the stained glass window John Schieber donated when the Conception Abbey Basilica was built in 1891. As you go into the Basilica today, the window can be found to your right on the south side about two thirds the way towards the main altar.

Fred,

There are only a few small things I noticed in reviewing the Leona Pauline Meyer descendents. First of all in the Richard Bierschbach children, you only have Shannon's country of birth. Here are the rest: Nicholas, born in Paraguay, Bradley, born in Chile, Melissa, born in Guatemala.

16.10010511

Also in my children, you have my oldest child listed as Joe Wolter, his name is actually Joseph Wolter, and he does go by that name.

I also noticed a note concerning the fact that I am not mentioned in the Lager family history. Well, I'm happy to inform you that I was born and I am the fifth child of Leona Meyer and Donald Bierschbach. :)

Thank you
Barb

Fred,

There are only a few small things I noticed in reviewing the [illegible] Pauline Meyer descendants. First of all in the [illegible] children, you only have Shannon's country of birth. Here are the rest: Michael, born in Paraguay; Bradley, born in Chile; Melissa, born in Guatemala.

Also in my children, you have my oldest child listed as Joe Wolter; his name is actually Joseph Wolter, and he does go by that name.

I also noticed a note concerning the fact that I am not mentioned in the Leger [illegible]. Well, I'm happy to inform you that I was born and I am the fifth child of Leona Meyer and Donald [illegible].

Thank you
Steph
